

Call for Papers ISWA PUBLICATION AWARD 2014

The International Solid Waste Association's Publication Award has been designated to honour the author(s) of a publication, article or book which is deemed to be exceptional in its contribution to the field of solid waste management. The awardee will receive a cash prize of Euro 2,500 and a commemorative prize. Please see below requirements to be considered:

Call for papers to be considered in connection to the ISWA Publication Award 2014.

In order to have a wide selection of papers and publications for the ISWA Publication Award 2014 to be given in connection to the ISWA World Congress, ISWA General Secretariat requests all ISWA Members to send in proposals for the 2014 ISWA Publication Award.

A nomination requires a submission to the ISWA General Secretariat of:

1. A copy of the paper, article or publication that qualifies the nominee. The material submitted must be in English, either as published or carefully translated
2. The paper, article or publication must have been published during the previous calendar year or the current calendar year
3. Biographical details of the nominee
4. A short statement by the nominator as to particular qualities of the paper, article or publication and the nominee

The deadline for the nomination is 15 May 2014 and in the current year an ISWA Nomination Panel will read and rank the nominations received.

The award will be presented at the ISWA World Congress in Sao Paulo, Brazil which will take place from 8-11 September 2014.

We are looking forward to receive your contribution by 15 May 2014. Either by e-mail to Daniel Purchase, dpurchase@iswa.org or by hard copy forwarded to the General Secretariat in Vienna.

Please notice that if you send your contribution in hard copy we need you to send 4 copies of the publication/ book/ article.

Kind regards

Hermann Koller, ISWA MD
